Ultimate Adoption

Adoption into a loving home is the dream of every animal that the Humane Society of Boulder Valley serves. Tonight you have a chance to make that dream come true for the dog or cat of your choice. The puppy and kitten here tonight is just a representative of the many homeless animals available for adoption. This particular pup or kitten will not go home tonight with the highest bidder, but may be adopted at a later time. Our goal is to match our animals' needs with the lifestyles of families, and you may find that another breed or an older animal is more suitable for you. To help you find the right animal for your family and to ensure the proper placement of the animal into a new home, this package is valid for one year. Package Details:

- A microchip and lifetime registration
- "How to live with your dog" workshop
- Two of our training classes
- Year of routine wellness medical care from our clinic
- $500 Shopping spree in our Sonny Side retail store
